

MEET NEW DODGELAND DISTRICT ADMINISTRATOR TODD GRECO

The Dodgeland School District will welcome Todd Greco as the new District Administrator beginning on July 1, 2025. Greco said, "I am thrilled about the opportunity to serve Dodgeland as its next District Administrator. I look forward to working with our school district staff and engaging with the community as we continue to build on the foundation that is already well established in Dodgeland."

Board President David Beal notes, "Todd brings a variety of administrative experience to our District and with the help of the team we have, we expect a seamless transition as we change District Administrators. We look forward to maintaining and expanding our strengths under his leadership."

Greco is currently working towards a Doctor of Philosophy Degree through UW-Madison. He also holds a Master of Education Degree in Administration and Supervision from National-Louis University of Chicago, Illinois and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Education from Winona State University of Winona, Minnesota.

He currently serves as the Director of Special Education/Pupil Services for Parkview School District in Orfordville, where he has held this position for the past eight years. Previously, he held several roles in Beloit as an Associate Principal, PBIS Coordinator/Assistant Principal and Business Education Teacher. Greco has served on many community and professional associations, along with coaching baseball.

Todd Greco states "I have always loved working with students, families, educators, and community members toward building systems that remove barriers and improve achievement and experiences for students." Greco looks forward to working hand-in-hand with the staff and the entire Dodgeland community to create thriving schools where every student excels and feels truly supported, continuing to make Dodgeland the best place to learn and grow.
